

We're Looking for a Computer Programmer/Developer

About Insightworks

Insightworks Learning and Development is a provider of sophisticated, interactive onboarding and online learning solutions. Entering our eighth year, we combine the skills of Developers, Graphic Artists and Human Resource professionals to design custom 2D and interactive 3D learning solutions for clients in the healthcare, casino and manufacturing sectors.

About the Position

We're looking for a Computer Programmer/Developer to join our team. This position is a full-time permanent opportunity. The successful candidate will be skilled in software development and web-based programming. He or she should have strong communication skills and be independently motivated. An immediate start date with a competitive salary is available.

Key Deliverables

- Provide analytical and design expertise.
- Translate functional requirement into technical specifications clearly and accurately.
- Design, develop, implement and maintain existing systems.
- Perform testing of new systems and features.
- Troubleshoot system bugs and issues.
- Develop and utilize documentation.
- Acts as a technical subject matter expert on programming, system design and development related standards, policies, procedures and activities.
- Work effectively in a team setting.

Preferred Experience/Qualifications

- Bachelor's Degree or Diploma in a Computer Science related field.
- 3-5 years of experience programming with C#, VB, Javascript, .Net and IIS.
- Experience integrating with RESTfull and OData.
- Confident working with relational databases and reporting tools.
- Solid understanding of IT systems and software processes an asset.
- Experience working with in Project Management software (ie. VSTS, GIT).
- Excellent written and oral communication.

How to Apply

Please email your cover letter and detailed resume to: careers@insightworks.ca by September 28, 2018